

Impellimax

Hybridization miniaturizes your assembly and improves performance.

The three-module engineering prototype (shown at left) was hybridized into the set of hybrids which are displayed above.

These hybrids combined DCA and SMT devices, as well as channelized filters, in all-metal packages for lowest noise and best performance.

Trim pots and special RF devices were left out of the hybrids, but otherwise the entire set of assemblies was miniaturized thru hybridization.